21/09/75	Ward Councillor Update
	Ward Cllr. Lyn Healing confirmed that Holderness Health have yet again arranged a very well organised Flu Vaccination Service with availability throughout the surgeries. LH also confirmed that they are having ongoing meetings with the CCG regarding the poor service being received from Holderness Health, particularly regarding the Telephone System which does not seem to be fit for purpose. General discussion took place around the topic both negative and in some cases positive. LH suggested that the clerk put something on the Noticeboards re access to the appointment service via the 'KLINIK' System. Further LH confirmed, Terry Weaver together with Cllr. B Jull had met to resolve the drainage problem down Manor Lane, this has now been resolved.
